

how to play

Plinko

Plinko is originally from the game show The Price is Right. On the show, contestants must earn Plinko chips by completing tasks. The contestant then drops their chips, one at a time, into the Plinko slots. They win the prize in the slots at the bottom of the board in which their chip falls.

The slots on our Plinko board have chalk paint on them so are fully customizable.

You can choose to follow a more classic approach to Plinko by having the contestants earn Plinko chips, or keep it simple and hand out the Plinko chips to folks wanting to play.
